Provided below is a pdf download of the Kitab Sabilal Muhtadin. This book came from the work of Abu Zakariya Yahia bin Sharaf An-Nawawi who compiled the three titles, "A Hadith that should be recited when entering and leaving a Mosque," "A Hadith that should be recited when visiting a sick person," and "Various types of supplication" into one volume. The Kitab Sabilal Muhtadin is a collection of 3 books in one: 1) A hadith to recite when entering and leaving a mosque. 2) A hadith to recite when visiting a sick person. 3) Various types of supplications. All praises due to Allah ta'ala. Peace be upon the messengers of Allah, and peace be upon those sent. It is okay to download this book for personal use but not for commercial use or distribution. These books can also be found at <http://www.sunnipath.com/Resources/Books/>. The book is in 3 parts, the first part of the book contains a hadith that should be recited when entering and leaving a mosque. This is followed by a second part called A Hadith that should be recited when visiting a sick person. This second part is followed by a third part. The third part contains various types of supplications.

An excerpt from the book: "It all started with a few people who did not know of what to say to Allah, so they described their state of mind and situation to the Prophet (peace be upon him) who said : 'Say: I seek refuge in Allah from Satan the expelled. Nor does Satan sleep except standing, nor is he overtaken by slumber except that he goes about seeking whom he may devour. Yours is only Allah who has the keys to the mysteries, the knowledge of which is found with none save Him.' And He pointed to His heart - what else should you be asking for? Then there are many types of supplications. One supplication entails saying: 'O Allah! I ask you for success in my affairs, by means of which I will benefit myself and others, and will acquire it (through giving charity).' Another one entails : ' O Allah! Teach me Your religion and make my religion like Yours.
